EXPERIENCE

SENTENCING ADVOCACY GROUP OF EVANSTON - Evanston, IL 2006-present
FOUNDING PARTNER AND MITIGATION SPECIALIST

Founding partner and supervising mitigation specialist of eight-person, inter-disciplinary mitigation practice that has provided sentencing advocacy in more than 70 federal and state criminal cases.

Lead teams in the development detailed, multi-generational life histories for defendants facing the death penalty, juvenile life without release, or other sentences in order to contextualize the charges against the defendant and demonstrate the client's humanity.

Identify, locate, and interview relevant people in a culturally competent manner that produces confidential, relevant, and reliable information. Recognize and elicit information about mental-health symptoms, sexual abuse, trauma, and other sensitive topics. Establish rapport with witnesses to overcome barriers to disclosure.

Gather documentation to support the testimony of expert and lay witnesses, including, but not limited to, school, medical, employment, military, and social service records.

Aid counsel in identifying the type of experts needed, including psychologists, neuropsychologists, epileptologists, toxicologists, sociologists, and experts in intellectual disability, trauma, sexual abuse, and addiction. Facilitate the expert's work.

Protect our standards of practice by educating courts, attorneys, and the administration of institutional defenders about the expertise, time, and efforts required to perform a constitutionally effective mitigation investigation.

Mentor and supervise newcomers to the field.

CABRINI GREEN LEGAL AID - Chicago, IL
INTERIM LEGAL DIRECTOR

2011-2012

Supervised Cabrini Green Legal Aid’s provision of high-impact, free legal services to low-income Chicagoans in four areas of law: family, housing, criminal records, and criminal defense in a unique program that integrates legal representation and social services to improve legal outcomes and extend its impact beyond crisis support.

Oversaw CGLA’s nine full-time attorneys, along with interns and volunteers, as they served more than 5,000 clients a year.

Maintained a caseload that included public-housing evictions, orders of protection, child custody, criminal defense, petitions to seal or expunge, and clemency petitions.

Led the development of new projects within CGLA’s legal practice, including: a program for juvenile defense, expungement, and school expulsions; a court-partnership serving order-of-protection litigants; and partnerships with academic institutions in research and clinical areas.

Built and nurtured relationships and partnerships with courts, other members of the legal-aid community, law schools and researchers, social-service providers, and law-firm partners.

Worked with the Interim Executive Director and the incoming Executive Director and program directors to refine the long-term vision for the legal program to maximize the transformative impact on our clients and their communities.

CAPITAL DEFENDER OFFICE - New York, NY
DEPUTY CAPITAL DEFENDER

2000-2005

Represented indigent defendants facing the death penalty under New York’s Capital-Offense statute.

Led trial teams of investigators, mitigation specialists, paralegals, and experts in preparation for trial or negotiated settlement.

Handled all aspects of the complex litigation associated with defense of a capital case from arraignment to resolution by disposition or trial.

Developed unique expertise in challenges to the demographic composition of juries.

Supervised teams of scientists, lawyers, and interns to investigate various sociological aspects of the death penalty, for example, the effect of death qualification on the demographics of the jury.

Litigated In re Investigation of Thomas, 189 Misc.2d 487 (Kings Cty. Sup. Ct. 2001), the first decision in New York State to order that a lineup be conducted sequentially and double blind.

Advised appointed attorneys in capital and potentially capital proceedings.
